WERE YOU A MANAGER THIS YEAR? YES NO

The Orchestra Managers have a long tradition of service to the Boardman Orchestra. Anyone who applies to be a manager should understand the following expectations:

- All managers are expected to participate in all manager duties throughout the year, not just on trips.
- All managers should be aware that they may be required to perform managers duties at any time, day or night.
- All managers are expected to listen carefully and follow directions from the directors, chaperones, and the head manager.
- All managers are expected to perform their duties in a safe manner.
- All managers must understand that they represent our organization and therefore must conduct themselves in a respectful manner when performing manager tasks.
- All managers are expected to treat all equipment and personal property with care and respect at all times.
